

In Defense of Self: The Politics of Women's Health in War and Disaster Areas

a presentation by Sera Bonds, founder of Circle of Health International

Monday
March 16
7:00pm

Sun Dragon Martial
Arts & Self Defense
4534 West Gate Blvd, Ste 101

For more information:
(512) 416-9735
or www.sundragon.org

Sera has worked with rural midwives in northern India, Guatemala, Tibet, Palestine, Sri Lanka and Israel; and with commercial sex workers on issues of HIV/AIDS in Vietnam. She currently serves as a visiting lecturer at Ben Gurion University in Be'er Sheba, Israel, and was recently selected as a recipient of Boston University School of Public Health's Distinguished Alumni Award.

Co-sponsored by Austin Women's Health Center, BookWoman, Central Texas Midwives, Interfaith Coalition for Palestinian Rights, SafePlace and YWCA Austin

The "Fighting for Justice" speaker series explores various forms of social violence and the justice work being done to address them. Sun Dragon Martial Arts & Self Defense is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that supports the physical and spiritual empowerment of all through training in conflict resolution, self defense, and non-violent martial arts.